REFLECTIONS COLLECTIVE / YOUR STORY PASSPORT

OFF SCRIPT.

Notice. Imagine.
Explore. Carry forward.

A place for what you discover.

DECEMBER 4, 2026 / 9 AM-3 PM EASTERN

What brings me here today?

A question, a wish, or something I am curious about:

Notice → Imagine → Explore → Carry Forward

Write, draw, or skip any page. Change your mind or follow a new idea at any time. Your pages are private; nothing needs to be handed in.

These are invitations, not steps you have to complete.

What catches my eye?

Choose colours, pictures, or materials you like.

Something I was drawn to...

A colour, a place, a detail...

Make your collage on the next page or a separate card.

A little world of my own.

Pictures, words, shapes...

What if
I saw it differently?

Explore a story or a new point of view. You can agree, disagree, or be unsure.

Something that surprised me or stayed with me...

A moment, a question, a different view...

Being interested in an idea does not mean agreeing with it.

My own point of view.

Something I see differently...

What else am I wondering about?

Your boarding pass.

Think back to the scripts you noticed and the lives you imagined. What would you like to carry into your next chapter?

CLEARED FOR TAKEOFF

Write in a destination if one comes to mind. Bring this pass to the One-Year Reunion.

What travels with me?

Use one loose tag per item. Your tags can hold an expectation, a feeling, a resource, or anything you want to bring into your next chapter.

Keep

This still matters to me.

Repack

I want to carry this differently.

Leave behind

I’m ready to put this down.

Something I want to remember about what I chose…

The drop-off box is optional. You can keep your tags private or change your mind.

A year from now.

Imagine meeting again a year from today. What might you be happy to tell someone about your year?

You'll never believe what happened this year...

Connections Counter

Back in the present, what person, place or resource could help you explore what came up? If you'd like, browse the counter or leave a suggestion.

At the reunion, you can share, listen or pass.

Look back.
What do I notice?

Revisit any earlier page. Choose a question, or just look.

- ○ What connects?
- ○ What changed?
- ○ What does not fit together?
- ○ What new question do I have?

A connection, a change, a contradiction, a question...

You can leave with a question. No conclusion or action plan needed.

Dear
future me,

What would I like to tell myself?

Keep this page or write a separate letter to take home.

The story
can stay open.

Keep a discovery.
Keep a question.
Come back when you want to.
